U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl sinking or damaging 58 Japanese warships in one of history's greatest naval triumphs.

The Third and Seventh U. S. Fleets definitely sank 24 Japanese warcraft, including four aircraft carriers and two battleships, in last week's naval action off the Philippines, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced

Thirteen more Japanese craft, including a battleship, were damaged so badly they may have sunk, and 21 other warcraft, including six battleships, were damaged.

500,000 Ship-Tons Lost

The total—at least 500,000 tons—is more warcraft than Japan lost in all the four preceding great Pacific war sea battles com-

II in the Pacific." The three related actions, thus classified as the second battle of the Philippine sea, were fought south of Formosa, off the east coast of Samar and in Surigao strait off southeastern Leyte, October 23, 24 and 25.

Only 2 Ships Escaped

Possibly only two Japanese ships escaped undamaged from the debacle. No modern nation has had its fleet so nearly destroyed in one engagement.

Among American vessels, Nimitz proudly announced, were five battleships "seriously damaged at Pearl Harbor"-the West Virginia, Maryland, Tennessee, California and Pennsylvania, and three new carriers named for Japanese-sunken predecessors—the Lexington, Wasp and Hornet.

MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines, Oct. 30 (AP)—Ten days after he waded ashore, Gen. Douglas MacArthur today controlled two-thirds of strategic Leyte island and had a strangle hold on adjacent Samar as the retreating Japanese took to the hills or sought to escape by barge through waters patrolled by deadly American P-T boats.

MacArthur said the liberation of 1,500,000 Filipinos on the two central Philippine islands was virtually completed. The natives rapidly took on a degree of normalcy.

Tough Barrier at Rhine

Still, there's no sacrifice the Nazi own skin. Under his directions the German command is rushing work on fresh fortifications west of the Rhine in preparation for the Allied assault. Hitler's idea is to hold this river and so protract the war into next year. That's the most formidable line of defense still facing the western Allies.

Well, we shall see. Certainly the wide, deep and fast flowing Rhine presents tougher proposition than even the Siegfried line. We shall be smart if we make up our minds now that the Allies may be held up for a considerable time at this great river, which undoubtedly will be heavily defended on the east bank. STILWELL OUT; CHINA FACING SERIOUS CRISIS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Washington, Oct. 20 (AP)-China has been plunged headlong into a new military and political crisis by the recall of General Joseph W.

Stilwell to Washington. Information reaching nere indicates that decisions which must be made in Chungking in the next three to four weeks may well determine the fate of the Chinese war effort from now on.

Among American officials there is hope, but little real confidence that Generalissimo Chiang Kaishek will be bale to put his military and political affairs in order without further delay.

High strategy of the war against Japan hangs on the outcome but this crisis has been months in the making, with a virtual breakdown in China always possible...

Why is Ed Lane up in the air?

DECAUSE he's down to earth about D conserving coal. That's why he's putting up storm windows. He knows there will be some shortage of coal going to householders.

No less coal is being produced. More is being mined than ever before—with fewer men. Mine owners and miners alike are doing a splendid job. And there are ample rail facilities for transporting coal to your city.

But certain grades of coal are going to be greatly in demand for war production. And, to make things worse, your local coal dealer faces a shortage in manpower, trucks and tires.

So if you want to keep warm this winter, do everything possible to conserve the coal you can get. The little, common-sense things you can do will make your coal pile go 10% furtherand save that much on your fuel bill.

Install weatherstripping. Clean your furnace. Fire carefully, and avoid overheating. Shut off unused rooms. Pull your shades low at night. For other suggestions, see your coal dealer.

One of the biggest jobs of the C & O Lines is hauling coal from the mines along its routes, so we're in a position to understand the problem, and to know how essential coal is these days.

STILWELL OUT; SERIOUS CRISIS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Washington, Oct. 30 (AP)-China

has been plunged headlong into a new military and political crisis by the recall of General Joseph W. Stilwell to Washington.

Information reaching nere indicates that decisions which must be made in Chungking in the next three to four weeks may well determine the fate of the Chinese war effort from now on.

High strategy of the war against Japan hangs on the outcome but this crisis has been months in the making, with a virtual breakdown in China always possible

STILWELL OUT;

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Washington, Oct. 30 (AP)-China has been plunged headlong into a new military and political crisis by the recall of General Joseph W. Stilwell to Washington.

Information reaching nere indicates that decisions which must be made in Chungking in the next three to four weeks may well determine the fate of the Chinese war effort from now on.

Among American officials there is hope, but little real confidence that Generalissimo Chiang Kai.shek will be bale to put his military and political affairs in order without further delay.

High strategy of the war against Japan hangs on the outcome but this crisis has been months in the making, with a virtual breakdown in China always possible.

Delivery of the supplies was limited to what could be flown in by air and for months it has been general official knowledge here that Stilwell and the American chiefs of staff felt the Chinese could do a better job than they were doing even with the inadequate resources they

The situation within China will come to a head in mid-November when the central executive committee of the Kuomintang is scheduled to meet. As controlling agent of China's one party, the committee is the most powerful political organ in the country.

The three great problems which, in the opinion of authorities here. confront Chiang and the central executive committee are these:

1. Reorganization of the army at the top, for immediate improvement in the conduct of the war.

2. Establishment of relations between Chiang and the Communist elements in north China. This would help the current fighting in south China a little but would be an enormous gain for the future in which Russia may enter the fight against Japan.

3. Broadening the base of the government under Chiang to give it closer contacts with the people, regarded here as a crucial need.

Why is Ed Lane up in the air?

BECAUSE he's down to earth about conserving coal. That's why he's putting up storm windows. He knows there will be some shortage of coal going to householders.

No less coal is being produced. More is being mined than ever before-with fewer men. Mine owners and miners alike are doing a splendid job. And there are ample rail facilities for transporting coal to your city. But certain grades of coal are going to be greatly in demand for war production. And, to make things worse, your local coal dealer faces a shortage in manpower, trucks and tires. So if you want to keep warm this winter, do everything possible to conserve the coal you can get. The little, common-sense things you can do will make your coal pile go 10% furtherand save that much on your fuel bill.

Install weatherstripping. Clean your furnace. Fire carefully, and avoid overheating. Shut off unused rooms. Pull your shades low at night. For other suggestions, see your coal dealer. One of the biggest jobs of the C & O Lines is hauling coal from the mines along its routes, so we're in a position to understand the problem, and to know how essential coal is these days.

was to carry a slice of home to our boys overseas.

Traveling shows that gave to those fighting men

the best talent and entertainment this country had

Entertainment that gave them the chance to relax and remember what home is like. That's what your dollars helped make possible-in hundreds of overseas outposts.

It's hard to measure the effect this boost in morale had on all the gains we've so far made in this war. That it had an effect, an important effect, has been acknowledged by our military leaders. and the second second

But most important, it helped relieve for a while the loneliness of millions of hoys away from home. And that was certainly worth every dollar you gave.

The job isn't over yet. There are still millions of boys across the seas. We can't let them down now. That's why you're being asked to give again, this year-to give more than ever before. Much of your gift will be needed here to help servicemen's families, to help solve juvenile delinquency, to care for the needy. You Gave Them Hope!

ONE of the biggest jobs the U.S.O. did last year was to carry a slice of home to our boys overseas. Traveling shows that gave to those fighting men the best talent and entertainment this country had to offer.

Bob Hope ... Carole Landis ... Joe E. Brown ... Kay Francis. The top names of radio and Hollywood. Vaudeville and night club headliners. Singers, dancers, magicians, swing bands.

Entertainment that gave them the chance to relax and remember what home is like. That's what your dollars helped make possible-in hundreds of overseas outposts.

It's hard to measure the effect this boost in morale had on all the gains we've so far made in this war. That it had an effect, an important effect, has been acknowledged by our military

But most impostant, it helped relieve for a while the loneliness of millions of boys away from home. And that was certainly worth every dollar you gave.

leaders.

The job isn't over yet. There are still millions of boys across the seas. We can't let them down now. That's why you're being asked to give again, this year-to give more than ever before. Much of your gift will be needed here to help servicemen's families, to help solve juvenile delinquency, to care for the needy. Much of your gift will go overseas, to war prisoners, to Merchant Seamen, to homeless refugees. Make your contribution today, through your local community drive.

It's hard to measure the effect this boost in morale had on all the gains we've so far made in this war. That it had an effect, an important effect, has been acknowledged by our military leaders.

But most important, it helped relieve for a while the loneliness of millions of boys away from home. And that was certainly worth every dollar you gave.

The job isn't over yet. There are still millions of boys across the seas. We can't let them down now. That's why you're being asked to give again, this year-to give more than ever before. Much of your gift will be needed here to help servicemen's families, to help solve juvenile delinquency, to care for the needy. Much of your gift will go overseas, to war prisoners, to Merchant Seamen, to homeless refugees. Make your contribution today, through your local community drive.
